

CAL adds more flights to Miami

STARTING June 19, Caribbean Airlines is adding extra flights between Trinidad and Miami on Thursdays and Sundays, which it says are perfect for planning weekend getaways.

'Miami remains a favourite destination for shopping, quick escapes, and a wide range of activities. The added flights make it even easier for travellers to plan the perfect weekend trip, reconnect with family and friends, or simply enjoy all that Miami has to offer,' a release from Caribbean Airlines stated.

Commenting on the expansion, Caribbean Airlines CEO Garvin Medera stated: 'At Caribbean Airlines, we are always looking for ways to respond to the needs of our customers. When resources allow, we add capacity on popular routes to give more choice and flexibility. These additional Miami flights are part of that commitment, and we are delighted to offer even more opportunities for travel, especially during the busy July/August vacation period.'

'With the most extensive network in the Caribbean, Caribbean Airlines continues to grow and evolve to meet the travel needs of its customers,' it stated.
