

Hilton planning Roxborough resort

An image of what Elephant Tree Resort and Villas, Tobago, would look like when completed.

Global hospitality provider Hilton, yesterday announced the signing of Elephant Tree Resort and Villas Tobago, Tapestry Collection by Hilton, which is to be located in the Tobago village of Roxborough.

In a news release, Hilton said the plans for the resort include 40 guest rooms and 126 fully furnished residences, including 88 three-bedroom units and 38 two-bedroom units. The branded residences will offer buyers the opportunity to join an optional rental programme that will allow them to add their units to the hotel's inventory. Each residence will offer up to 1,560 square feet of living space, featuring elevated decor and high-end materials such as quartz countertops, and private terraces that invite guests to relax and soak in the stunning surroundings.

The property is nestled within over 21 acres of lush, natural beauty, and will feature more than 1,000 feet of oceanfront.

The development is expected to open in 2028.

"The signing of Elephant Tree Resort and Villas Tobago, Tapestry Collection by Hilton is a significant milestone in our efforts to bring Hilton's award-winning brands to sought-after destinations across the Caribbean, where we have 49 hotels today, and a pipeline to nearly double our portfolio of hotels and resorts in the region," said Pablo Maturana, vice president, development, Caribbean and Latin America, Hilton.

"We remain committed to collaborating with outstanding owners to strategically align the right brand with the right location at the right time. Interest in Tapestry Collection by Hilton, as well as our other lifestyle brands, has grown significantly across the Caribbean and Latin America, where Hilton currently welcomes guests at nearly 40 lifestyle hotels and has plans for more than 30 additional lifestyle properties across the region."